Bar Group Will Hear Mark Lane

Mark Lane, controversial attorney-author, will address the Junior Bar section of the Louisiana Bar Association during the group's 26th annual meeting beginning tomorrow at Biloxi.

Lane will speak on his book, "Rush to Judgment" which deals with the assassination of President Kennedy, at the luncheon meeting Friday at the Buena Vista Hotel.

Appearing on the Criminal Law section program will be Ephraim London of New York, an attorney who has successfully argued against censorship of the press, publication and films before the Supreme Court. He will debate Thursday with New York attorney Richard H. Kuh on "Censorship of Pornography."

Orison S. Marden of New York, American Bar Association, and Judge Robert A. Ainsworth Jr. of the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals will be featured speakers during the convention.
